

STATE TICKET

U. S. SENATOR (Short Term). F. W. MULKEY, of Multnomah County. U. S. SENATOR (Long Term). JONATHAN BOURNE, JR., of Multnomah County. FOR CONGRESS 1st Congressional District. WILLIS C. HAWLEY, of Marion County. FOR GOVERNOR JAMES WITHERCOMBE, of Washington County. FOR SECRETARY OF STATE F. W. BENSON, of Douglas County. FOR TREASURER OF STATE GEO. A. STEEL, of Clackamas County. FOR JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT ROBERT EAKIN, of Union County. FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL A. M. CRAWFORD, of Douglas County. FOR STATE SUPERINTENDENT J. H. ACKERMAN, of Multnomah County. FOR STATE PRINTER WILLIS S. DUNIWAY, of Multnomah County. FOR LABOR COMMISSIONER O. P. HOFF, of Multnomah County. FOR JOINT SENATOR FRANK J. MILLER, of Linn County.

MARION COUNTY REPUBLICAN TICKET

Marion County Republican Ticket. FOR STATE SENATOR THOS. B. KAY, of Salem. J. N. SMITH, of Salem. FOR REPRESENTATIVES FRANK DAVEY, of Salem. LLOYD T. REYNOLDS, of Chemawa. GEO. F. RODGERS, of Salem. J. H. SETTLEMIER, of Woodburn. JEROME D. SIMMONS, of Monitor. FOR SHERIFF W. J. CULVER, of Salem. FOR COUNTY CLERK R. D. ALLEN, of Salem. FOR COUNTY RECORDER D. G. DRAGER, of Mehama. FOR COUNTY TREASURER W. Y. RICHARDSON, of Stayton. FOR COUNTY SURVEYOR B. B. HERRICK, JR., of Turner. FOR COUNTY CORONER A. M. CLOUGH, of Salem. FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER W. H. GOULET, of Woodburn. PRECINCT OFFICERS. FOR JUSTICE OF THE PEACE Salem District. DANIEL WEBSTER, of Salem. FOR CONSTABLE Salem District. J. C. JOHNSON, of Salem.

We are now prepared to contract for... The House Furnishing Co. 177 Liberty St. Phone Main 139

DEAN'S FRENCH FEMALE PILLS

IF MAXIM GORKY WERE AN AMERICAN

(Alfred Henry Lewis in Human Life.)

His eyes, even in that second's smile of introduction, flashed a curious impression of a banked fire of energy and enthusiasm. His student's face kindled with a cheery animation, his long hair was shaken back, the suggestion of a bend in his shoulders slipped away and his hand gripped mine, not with the conventional clasp which Maxim Gorky has yet to learn, but with the vigor of genuine welcome. It was Gorky the man, not Gorky the reformer, the revolutionist or the exile, whom I sought—the human side the common sense explanation of the domestic relations of the Russian leader who has shown himself worthy of the idolatry of one country and who has been refused the common courtesy of public speech in another. The union between Maxim Gorky and the woman whom he proudly calls his wife, has been sneered at as immoral. The mission which brought the pleader for Russia to the land of the free is forgotten. Justly or unjustly so? Does Gorky's marital position deserve the judgment it has received? What are, indeed, the true facts of his domestic relations? These queries were in my mind as I surveyed the lithe, nervous figure in the queer Sunday afternoon costume for an American drawing room—belted trousers and Russian blouse. In the simple sincerity of the square, frank gaze, the dominant impression was vivid that whatever the code of American ethics might say, there was nothing in Maxim Gorky's life of which he was ashamed. "If the task requires ten years I shall swing your country to my cause," declared the exile earnestly, "and show your people the true facts of my position, which in itself is the best argument I can give why they should help, and not denounce me." Curiously I turned to the charmingly gowned, pathetically smiling woman, who was presented to me as Mrs. Gorky, she who has surrendered to the rank of a princess in the Russian royal family and the fortune of an American millionaire to the task of aiding her native country. There was no wavering in the bearing of this woman who sacrificed her all on the altars of two loves, her country and her husband. Clearly the cry of outraged American society has not caused her to doubt as to her conduct. And it was with the fearless attitude of both the man and the woman on the most sacred of human relations, the marital union, firm in my mind, that I listened to the explanation which has made me Maxim Gorky's champion. Put the question in this wise. If Gorky, the Russian, were an American, his union with his second wife would have been as legal as United States court rulings could have made it. You who are an American and who are governed by American conditions, in your reception of this man who has appealed to you for his country, seek to substitute for the precedents of your home, the realities of little known Russia. In tabulated form a bird's eye view of the Russian divorce would embrace the following points: The granting of a divorce in that country is entirely in the hands of the church. It is removed completely from the jurisdiction of the courts. For no reason is a divorce granted unless on the testimony of two witnesses, who will swear that they have personally witnessed the act of adultery committed by the person from whom the divorce is sought. The American score and more of reasons, sufficient for a divorce, would be laughed at by the Russian church. Cruelty, non-support, desertion, none of these would bring a divorce to either man or woman in the land of the czar. So difficult is it to obtain a Russian divorce, that there are hundreds of the most respected families in social and business circles where there have occurred unions exactly similar to the Gorky marriage.

A large and Long Over-due Shipment of Portieres arrived last week. These should have reached us by March 15th and owing to their late arrival we will make a Great Sacrifice Sale of this lot on Thursday, May 31st, '06

This will be a sale for Cash Only and no deliveries, only one pair to a customer. As an evidence that we have full faith in the values to be given at this sale any purchaser may return the goods within one week and not only get his money back but a due bill good for 25c on any purchase he may make here during the next six months. This is a bona fide offer without any tainted strings. The 25c due bill feature is made to in a measure repay you for any time expended in satisfying yourself that we intend to give entirely satisfactory bargains.

The House Furnishing Co. 177 LIBERTY ST.

Unable to change the statutes, the people have made their own laws. They have instituted the "common law divorce" and the "common law marriage," the latter, even in our own state of New York, recognized until within a short time ago. Gorky and his first wife, in the presence of their friends, followed the custom of scores of families of high position, when they publicly agreed to separate. Gorky and his second wife were doing no more than dozens of others, when in the same manner they announced their union. And so obviously was this the case, that the great Tolstol, than whom there is no more universally revered man, perhaps, in the world, personally blessed Maxim Gorky's marriage. Since his arrival in this country, Gorky has been a close student of American social laws and customs, and is particularly astonished at the fact that in our state of North Carolina the same conditions, as to the granting of a divorce, exist as are recorded in Russia, with the single exception that the courts are given this jurisdiction. He draws a parallel to his own case which should strike home to the American people. "How would you view the case of a Carolina man or woman unable to obtain a divorce, who should desire to remarry?" he asks. "Of course in your country, I am told that divorce is really a simple matter, depending oftentimes merely on one of the two contesting parties changing the place of residence for a short time. "I shall prepare a complete statement of my position as soon as possible, which will be translated into the English tongue, and scattered broadcast. I am hopeful enough to believe that the American people will realize the necessity of my position, when they have had conditions, with which I realize perfectly they are not now acquainted, explained to them. I shall not go back. I shall continue onward with my work. Very possibly I shall arrange a short lecture tour this spring or summer, but the chances are that I will make no public address until fall, when I hope to arrange an extended tour of this country. I am planning now to devote five or six months of this summer to the study of English. I believe that Russia's main hope in bettering her present condition is through the aid of the United States, a sister country, fighting scarcely more than a hundred years since for the very privileges which my compatriots are now asking!" "Does Mr. Gorky still continue his literary work?" I asked Mr. Martin. His host laughed. "Would you consider from 12 to 15 hours of close application every day working? That bare statement will give you something of Mr. Gorky's habits. He does much of his work at night, generally sitting down to his desk when the rest of us are retiring. Heaven knows when he stops! He gets up about 9 in the morning, has coffee in his room, and works until 1. Then lunch and more work until 6. He knocks off then for dinner and a short chat in the earlier part of the evening. But he generally precedes the rest of us upstairs." "No exercise, no—" "No, indeed! The man rarely ventures outside. In Russia, he has gone for days without stirring from the house. Exercise to him seems to be quite unnecessary." But Gorky is not afraid of the weather, for all of his habits as a recluse. During my visit to the Martins' home a sudden rain beat against the windows. As I glanced outside, Maxim Gorky, with bare head, was on the lawn in it all, shaking his dripping hair back from his eyes and drinking in the moistened air with the deep, enjoyable breaths of a man who quaffs old wine. By his side, the Martins' big dog was caressing his hand. You say there is immorality, deceit in that man? Arnold Daly is now negotiating with Gorky for the presentation in America of the latter's remarkable play, "The Night Refuge," just completing an unparalleled run of 1800 nights in Berlin. The proceeds of this production, already amounting to $50,000, will be given entirely to the Russian revolutionary fund. This, together with the income from Gorky's contemplated lecture tour, the Russian believes should give his country what it now most needs, money, and sufficient, to take a long step in the work toward which he, himself, and hundreds of others have given a lifetime of sacrifice. In this connection the synopsis of the career of Mrs. Gorky should impress at least the American woman. Born with the title of the Princess Romanoffski, when she inherited her large estates on coming of age, and found that the government would not allow her to erect schools for her peasantry, she promptly renounced her position and threw her immense fortune to the cause of the revolutionists. Her son, by her previous marriage, entitled to the rank of prince, likewise re-

WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK BODIES Kidney Diseases Cause Half the Common Aches and Ills of Salem People. As one weak link weakens a chain, so weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking down. Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys, and when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers from the excess of uric poison circulated in the blood. Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills come, and there is an ever-increasing tendency towards diabetes and fatal Bright's disease. There is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help. Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys and cure every kidney ill. Salem cures are the proof. William Stansell, of 250 Cottage St., Salem, Ore., says: "For five or six years kidney complaint and backache bothered me. It was never bad enough to lay me up but there were few times when I did not feel it still there, and I suffered a lot from the persistent aching over and through the kidneys and from other symptoms of kidney trouble. I was never able to find anything to give me any permanent benefit until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Dr. Stone's drug store. The effects of this remedy were so gratifying that I am glad to let others know my satisfactory experience with your medicine." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's and take no other.

nounced his position. Mrs. Gorky's stage career—and she has won the most notable success of any of the serious Russian actresses—was taken up entirely with the idea of benefiting her country and the major portion of her earnings have been given to the great cause. If You Have Dyspepsia Read This. The old way of taking pepsin, bismuth, etc., to cure dyspepsia is all wrong. They may be put in tablets or in liquid, the result is just the same. The object is to create artificial digestion, but this does not make a cure. Stop taking the pepsin, etc., and you have your dyspepsia or indigestion back again. People use cocaine or opium for nervous troubles and sick headache. It does not cure. Stop taking the drugs and the pain and distress return. The only Common Sense Method is to drive out of the system the cause of dyspepsia and sick headache by cleansing the stomach and bowels, at the same time using a medicine that will act on the liver. This forces through the glands of the stomach the digestive fluid that nature intended. In this way you cure dyspepsia. The medicine that cures dyspepsia by this method is called Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills. Drug gists sell these pills at 25c per box. It only takes one pill for a dose.

CHEAP EXCURSION RATE EAST FOR SUMMER SEASON

The Southern Pacific Company will sell special round-trip tickets to eastern points on June 4, 6, 7, 23, 25, July 2 and 3, August 7, 8, 9, Sept. 8, 10, 1906, to Chicago, St. Louis, Milwaukee, St. Paul, Omaha, Sioux City, St. Joe, Atchison, Leavenworth, Kansas City, Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo, Colo. Good going ten days and returning ninety days from sale date; but not beyond October 31, 1906. For particulars call on agents A. L. Craig, General Passenger Agent, Portland. If

Notice to Bond Holders. Notice is hereby given to parties holding bonds 1, 2, 3, and 4, issued by school district No. 6, of Clatsop county, Oregon, that the same have been called in, and will be paid within thirty days of this date, at the office of the county treasurer, 559-565 Commercial street, Astoria, Oregon. Dated Astoria, Oregon, this 1st day of May, 1906. CHAS. A. HEILBORN, County Treasurer, Clatsop County. 5-2-301

Cowardly Hazing by Cadets. (From Leslie's Weekly.) "Cowardly and ungentlemanly" are the words of Admiral Benda in describing the hazing at Annapolis. The astonishing report of the house sub-committee, of which Representative Vreeland is chairman, makes the disclosures of naval academy conditions as disgusting as they were unexpected. The investigation shows that fourth-class men have not only been subject to all sorts of servile duty at the com-

Optician

Bifocal lenses near-sighted and far-sighted lenses made to order. Gold and Gold Filled Frames. Also made to order. Our prices you will find reasonable.

Chas. H. Hinges Jewelers and Optician 123 Commercial St.

Liberty Store

FOR YOUR HEINS Oyster shells, Oil meal, Bone meal, Shorts, Bran, and Wheat. Always on hand. Shorts95¢ Bran70¢ Per Sack. E. W. SMITH, Prop

ICE

Price at Warehouse. 1c per lb., less than 100 lbs.; 50c per 100 lbs.; $8.00 per ton. Price Delivered. 1c per lb. less than 70 lbs. 70c per 100 lbs. to fit refrigerator. Ask driver or call for coupon book. Ice house will be Open Sundays From 8 a. m. until 12:30 p. m. Special rates same as last year. For particulars call at office in alley back of car barn.

Salem Ice Co.

mand of upper classes, but that they have been called upon to tell obscene stories and to perform other disgraceful acts. If these charges are substantiated, it will be interesting to hear the defense of the system by those advocates of hazing who profess to regard it as necessary to the formation of manly character. What could be more fatal to manliness and bravery than the license accorded to an upper classman to compel a young companion to perform degrading actions—a license against which the victim has no appeal? Is conduct worthy of an officer and a gentleman the mature and legitimate result of such a course of training? We had supposed that manliness, in the navy, as elsewhere, asserted itself by kindness and courtesy to inferiors in rank or condition. Unless the country is ready to accept the teachings of a new school of ethics for the picked men of one of its most honored services, this barbarous and unchristian usage must be stamped out.

CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bears the Signature of

REPUBLICAN SPEAKING DATES

The Republican county central committee announces the following list of appointments for its candidates. Speakers of the best class will entertain the people and all are invited to the meeting: Thursday, May 31, at Mt. Angel, at 2 p. m.; Thursday, May 31, Hubbard, at 2 p. m.; Thursday, May 29, Aurora, at 8 p. m.; Friday, June 1, Butteville, at 10 a. m.; Friday, June 1, Mt. Paul, at 2 p. m.; Friday, June 1, Woodburn, at 8 p. m.; Saturday, June 2, at Brooks, at 2 p. m.; Saturday, June 2, Salem, at 8 p. m.

Do You Want Some Bargains

We have received in trade several good pieces of furniture that are useful. They are for sale very cheap. Our stock of new furniture and house furnishings is complete. J. A. PATTERSON, 271 Commercial St. Salem.